

David Dewhurst
LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR OF TEXAS

Greetings,

I want to welcome Father Jonathan Morris to the Lone Star State and extend to him a warm Texas greeting.

While I am unable to be with you tonight, I want to thank both Father Morris and all the staff, volunteers and patrons of the John Paul II Life Center for all you do to promote and expand the culture of life.

The medical care, counseling and education that the Center provides are crucial to helping spread the message of compassion and love for the unborn that Pope John Paul II demonstrated throughout his life.

Please know that Tricia joins me in wishing you an enjoyable and successful evening and know that we stand with you in your efforts to educate the world on the sanctity of life.

Best Regards,

Dear Friends of the John Paul II Life Center,

Although Heidi and I regret we cannot be with you in person this evening, we'd like to express our strong support for the efforts of The John Paul II Life Center to develop a culture of life in Texas.

We appreciate your efforts to accomplish the following goals:

1. Provide quality medical care through the Vitae Clinic,
2. Provide state of the art 3D/4D sonograms to women so they can see their unborn child, and
3. Offer education to youth and couples.

It's critical that we all continue working in our own ways to protect human life at all stages. I commend my friend Tim Von Dohlen for his vision and leadership on The John Paul II Life Center and the terrific team he's built.

Heidi and I, along with our two young daughters Caroline and Catherine, send you our warmest blessings and congratulations.

All the best,

Greetings,

I regret that Cecilia and I are unable to join you tonight at your inaugural benefit for the John Paul II Life Center with Father Jonathan Morris. Please know that we support your efforts in creating and sustaining a culture of life here in Austin.

As the blessed John Paul II said "it is impossible to further the common good without acknowledging and defending the right to life." Thank you to the staff and many volunteers who have already given so much to the Center to help carry out this important message. Hundreds of women have benefitted from your tireless efforts but there is still work to be done.

I join you in praying for a successful evening as you strive to generate the much needed funds to continue spreading the good word of the John Paul II Life Center.

Sincerely,

Greg Abbott
Attorney General of Texas
